From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Mon, 9/9/2013 8:30:36 AM
Subject: In today's FT: Benign China inflationadds to recovery hopes, Assad...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Monday September 09 2013

UK HOMEPAGE

Benign China inflation adds to recovery hopes

Fresh inflation data have added to a growing sense that the Chinese economy is recovering and that the second half of the year should see continued growth

Assad and Kerry vie for hearts and minds

US investors pile into European equities

VIDEO

Piëch motors on

Talk that Volkswagen's 76-year-old supervisory board chairman Ferdinand Piëch was to step down has been denied. Lex's Stuart Kirk and Nikki Tait discuss the benefits of a broad age range in the boardroom.

US HOMEPAGE

Double bank capital, says Vickers

Core tier one capital ratios would now be 20% in a ‘blue-sky’ world, rather than the 10% recommended by his own independent commission just two years ago

Neiman Marcus likely to be sold

Alibaba prepared to move HK listing to NY

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Europe bond rush brings in $29bn

A total of 39 issues come in the space of two weeks after one of quietest summers on record as borrowers seek to take advantage of low borrowing costs

Irish whiskey distillers order a triple

Merkel embarks on final election sprint

ASIA HOMEPAGE

McLaren starts its engines in China

British supercar manufacturer opens its showroom doors in China, racing to catch up with global rivals in the world's second-largest luxury car market

Abbott gets on his bike as work begins

Solace for BP in spill payments report

WORLD NEWS

Jailed Dubai debtors go on hunger strike

A group of businessmen have gone on hunger strike in Dubai's main jail to protest against their continued incarceration for writing cheques that bounced

Exit polls boost Navalny in Moscow race

EU pressed over Israel settlement funding

Spain tackles rising social hardship

Ambrosetti upbeat over eurozone outlook

COMPANIES NEWS

Alibaba board wrestles over listed future

Quest by top executives to keep control over their board is running up against determination by some to defend principles of investor protection

Norway's Conservatives eye sell-offs

Unfinished business in battle to fix the banks

Ministers prepare to launch Royal Mail float

Ex-Citi chief calls for return of bank split

MARKETS

Banks set for Verizon's $20bn bond push

Wall Street lenders are tasked with finding buyers for the bonds despite market for corporate debt being sharply negative and uncertain yields

Corporate Europe can stage a rebound

Coca-Cola Hellenic set to join FTSE 100

Zoopla views listing to tap property rise

COMMENT

A trap of the president's making

Obama's characteristic caution has landed him in a far more perilous position than he could have imagined

China will stay the course on growth

German politics heading for instability

America's heart is in the city once again

MANAGEMENT

Konstantin Malofeev, Marshall Capital Partners

The founder of the private equity firm, one of Russia's leading businessmen, has strong ties to the Orthodox church and the Kremlin elite

The shoe shop, the walkout and the online fallout

Having an underperforming colleague

Fight director

Manage email | Forward this email | Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2013

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.